Evolution of being:

First one sees beauty in the activities of creations.

Then one sees beauty in the process of creations and innovations.

Then one enquires the purpose of all creations!

What is mind?

It is supposed to be a hypothetical point/region in the brain from where, it is presumed to be, all the thoughts emanate!

Our state of mind determines what we are!

"Nothing in the world can make you happy.

Things in the world can make you only happier, once you are already happy within you."
